RULES ON THE STUDY PROCESS OF STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MARIBOR
(Unofficial consolidated text – NPB1)

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1

- (1) These Rules regulate the adaptation of the study process to students with disabilities or students with special needs (hereinafter: students with disabilities) at the University of Maribor. The term student with a disability is used as neutral for a student with a disability or a student with special needs.
- (2) Adaptation refers to the accessibility of the facilities, communication accessibility, adaptation of lectures and tutorials and other forms of the study process, adjustment of study obligations and accessibility and adaptation of study literature.
- (3) The Rules regulate the adjustment of the study process of 1st, 2nd and 3rd cycle study programmes, currently valid study programmes and supplementary study programmes.

Article 2

- (1) The University and its members must ensure an equal treatment of students with disabilities in the exercise of their rights and obligations. Direct and indirect discrimination, harassment and victimization are prohibited.
- (2) Each year, the members of the university, in cooperation with students with disabilities, prepare and adopt an action plan for removing barriers for students with disabilities according to the current needs of students with disabilities and within the capabilities of each member of the university.
- (3) Once a year, the members submit a report on the implementation of action plans to the Student Council of the University, which informs the UM Senate about the report.

Article 3

- (1) Students with disabilities are people who, due to long-term physical, mental, intellectual or sensory impairments, unlike other students, face obstacles that prevent or hinder their full and effective inclusion and participation in educational processes.
- (2) Examples of categories of students with disabilities or students with special needs are:
 - students with visual impairments,
 - students with hearing impairments,
 - students with speech and language problems,
